Roundtable With Longtime Milwaukee DJ, Bob Barry

Bob Barry's Rock and Roll Milwaukee, stories from the fifth Beatle. Hear a brief history of Rock and Roll, a huge event he almost missed out on, a newsman who almost got fired for a headline he used, how radio contests are won, "wolves" in the studio, being at the Playboy Mansion with Barbi Benton and Elton John, how Muhammed Ali walked out on him in the middle of his interview, his claim to fame as the one who introduced the Beatles in Milwaukee, the entertainer who had Bob star struck, and many more really interesting and fun stories. Packed with never before seen photos, his revealing memoir recalls this iconic DJ's many celebrity encounters, his career highlights and setbacks and the hijinks that made Milwaukee radio rock. Don't miss this wonderful and fun Roundtable. Bob also wrote a book about his experiences, and he will have the books on sale at the Roundtable for the special price of $20, with proceeds going to a children's charity. Great Christmas gifts for people who listened to Bob for years. Come, and tell non-Vagabond friends, too, not to miss this terrific Roundtable. Questions? Contact Ron Sonntag, 414-788-4907 or ron@rspr.com. Dinner served at 5 pm, so eat while listening.

HAPPY HOLIDAYS!

It's December, a time for celebrating the Holidays! Look inside this issue of the Life for all kinds of activities to help you celebrate with your Vagabond friends. December begins with the General Meeting on December 5th, a fun Roundtable before and dancing and partying after. Then there's the fish fry on Friday, the 7th. There's Christmas Caroling at Luther Manor Retirement Center to spread holiday cheer to the residents there, followed by dinner at Alioto's. Enjoy a trip to Chicago on the Holiday bus trip, if you are already registered. New this year is a Christmas

Bakery Tour (Yum!), and to round out the year, you have two New Year's Eve parties to choose from: one is the Vagabond New Year's Eve party at KC Hall; and the other is a formal party at the Tripoli Shrine. For some outdoor exercise and fresh air, the hikes continue on Sundays in December. Check inside this issue of the Life to get details about all of these terrific events!

Safety Means Getting into Ski Shape!

One of the most effective ways to prevent injuries while skiing is to make sure you are in good shape before you ski. Stronger muscles will not only help you maintain control (which is important in avoiding collisions), they will also make skiing more fun. Skiing requires strong knees and legs, a fit core, endurance and coordination. According to 'Becomeanexpertskier.com,' you should begin your fitness program at least two months prior to your first day on the slopes and that your fitness routine should include hamstring, quadricep and back stretches. In addition, you should work on core and overall abdominal strength. Now is the time to get ready so you can spend longer days on the slopes! You will be glad you did. And always remember to warm up and stretch before you start skiing.

Vagabond Race Team 2018/19 Season

For more information, contact Team Captain Al Lemke at 414-688-2938 or aklemke2993@gmail.com

The Vagabond Ski Team begins its race season on Saturday, December 15, at Alpine Valley Ski Area with two giant slalom races (four total runs). Spectators are encouraged to come out and watch the team in action. A trophy presentation ceremony is held after the race.

This season there are 14 races scheduled on seven different dates sponsored by the Metropolitan Milwaukee Ski Council Senior Racing (MMSCSR). The tentative schedule appears below. New this year men and women ski in the same classes. There are about 40-45 skiers at each race who compete in one of eight different classes depending on skill level. Two different courses are run for each race and the times are combined. Awards are presented in each class at each race. Season awards are also given in each class at the end of the season. Racers do not have to compete in all the races but to qualify for a season award, a racer must have at least six starts with a minimum of two slaloms and two giant slaloms.

All MMSCSR clubs practice at Little Switzerland on Wednesday nights from 7 to 9 pm. Lift tickets are on your own. MMSCSR also practices at Sunburst on Friday nights. In addition to Friday practices, there are three races at Sunburst this year. Race and practice updates will be communicated via email so be sure to check your email for updates.

Sunburst is working exclusively with MMSC Clubs like the Vagabonds in a way that should help the race program by offering any Vagabond member, racer or not, a 2018/2019 season pass to ski any time for $149. Please present your Vagabond ID to be eligible for the special pricing. If ordering a pass by phone, Sunburst will verify your Vagabond membership through Joyce Szulc.

All Vagabond skiers (intermediate or better) are invited to try running race gates with us. Just show up and identify yourself. Skiing down a course at practice, whether starting from the top or halfway down is a way to make local skiing exciting and fun. Try it and you will be hooked! We help each other improve our skiing, have fun and compete at a level that is appropriate for each skier.

We are always looking for more men and women to join us. If you are not skiing any more, please pass this information to your friends and family who might be interested. Remember the Vagabonds started as a ski club and we would like to keep the tradition going. We enjoy the practices, the racing and the socializing after skiing.

Recap of 2017/18 Season

The Vagabond Ski Team included 22 racers last season. The women's team finished in a tie for 1st place with the Holy Hill team, winning six of 12 races. The men's team finished in 1st Place winning 11 of the 12 races, beating out the Holy Hill team. Combined, the Vagabond team won 1st place finishing first in 11 of 12 races compared to seven of 12 the prior year. In order of finish behind the Vagabonds were the Holy Hill, Snowmad and Sitzmark ski teams.

What is the MMSC?

The Metropolitan Milwaukee Ski Council (MMSC) is a group of clubs formed in the 1960s for the purpose of promoting skiing, ski trips and racing. The MMSC is the parent of the

The Book of Mormon
 Sun., January 6, 1 pm
 Marcus Center Performing Arts
 The Book of Mormon is back at the Marcus Center. If you didn't get an opportunity to see it a few years ago, now is your chance! Or come see it again.

This is a musical comedy that makes light of various Mormon beliefs and practices, but ultimately endorses the positive power of love and service. The script, lyrics and music were written by Parker & Stone, who are best known for "South Park" and Robert Lopez who wrote the music for "Avenue Q."

The Book of Mormon follows two mismatched missionaries as they attempt to preach the Mormon religion to the inhabitants of a remote Uganda village. The earnest young men are challenged by the lack of interest of the locals, who are preoccupied with more pressing troubles such as famine, and oppression from local warlords.

This show has been awarded 9 Tony Awards, including Best Musical and a Grammy Award for Best Musical Theater Album.

We have Orchestra seats for $60 and Center Loge seats for $40. We will meet for Brunch prior to the show at Bar Louie, 1114 N. Water St. at 11 am.

Sign up online or send your Event Coupon with check payable to VSSC to Cindy Hummer, 16780 Eldorado Drive, Brookfield, 53005. Questions? Call Cindy at 262-781-5235.

Festival City Symphony Presents A Tribute To The Music of Vienna

Sun., January 27, 2 pm

"Our Home in Vienna" is the second concert of the season. "There is no more important place in music history than Vienna, Austria," Simmons said. The program will feature engaging compositions from four Viennese masters, including Overture to the Magic Flute, K. 620 by Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart, Blumine by Gustav Mahler, Where the Citrons Bloom by Johann Strauss II, and Symphony no. 3 in D major by Franz Schubert. In devoting a whole concert to masterpieces from Vienna's great stages and concert halls, the Festival City Symphony hopes to renew appreciation for the remarkable culture and history of this city. So come and enjoy two hours of great music and relaxation for only $8 for Vagabonds and friends. Then to Rock Bottom Brewery at 4 pm for good food and beverages. Send checks payable to VSSC to Ron Sonntag, 9406 N. 107th St., Milwaukee 53224, or sign up with credit cards or cash at the December or January meetings or online at vagabondskiclub.com. Tickets will not be mailed to you, but will be passed out in the front lobby of the Pabst at 1:45. Call Ron, at 414-788-4907, with questions. Start the day with the Vagabond lakefront hike at 11 am for some good heart exercise and fresh air, too."
