Alzheimer's, healthy exercising, developing better physical balance and strength, the importance of staying social, fending off wrinkles, better sleep, how to enjoy life more as you age, and so on. PRESIDENT'S CORNER

Linda

It's October!

The days are shorter and the temperatures cooler. The Club is gearing up for all kinds of fall and winter activities to enjoy. This is also the month that our membership renewal is due. October 1st is the due date to keep your membership current and continue enjoying a wide variety of fun activities and wonderful trips with Vagabond friends. Renew your membership using whatever form is most convenient for you – by U.S. mail, at a meeting or the most convenient of all – online! On page 3 you will find step-by-step directions for renewing online as well as people to call for help if you need it.

As our Club moves into the future, ideas for new activities, new events, and new twists on traditional events are vital. If you have an idea or ideas for new activities or events, please share your thoughts with me or with another Board member. No one will twist your arm to lead the event – unless you want to. And if you are willing to lead an event for the first time, you will be assisted by a Director or an experienced event leader. Please share your ideas. I would really like to hear from you.

Another way the Club is moving forward is by using existing technologies that enable us to communicate more effectively with our members and provide more convenience for them, too, while operating more efficiently and cost effectively. It is wonderful to see how many of our members are conveniently renewing their Vagabond memberships online. And, for several recently opened events, more than 80% of the members who signed up registered and paid online! A testament to how much our members are enjoying the convenience of online registration. If you haven't yet logged in and tried renewing your membership, or signing up for an event online, give it a try. Any of us listed on page 3 are more than willing to help. Please contact us in the order listed.

Enjoy the Fall!

Seeking Suggestions for Staying Active

Cold weather is coming, but there are still events and opportunities for those of us who spend winter in Wisconsin. Do you have an idea for an event or activity? Don't hesitate to contact John Podsedly, and we can explore whether it would be feasible.

For instance, some members have expressed interest in ballroom dance lessons. Should we look into the established studios? Or someone who would meet with us elsewhere? An instructor who specializes in small groups? Let me know what you think at JohnPodsedly@gmail.com or 414-369-4199.

Supper Club Journey #5

The Duck Inn

Wed., October 17

Cocktails: 5:30 pm (cash bar)

Dinner: 6:30 pm

(separate checks available)

CR-A & Hwy 89 (N6214 WI8),

Delavan, WI

(Located on the corner of County A & Hwy 89 in the township of Richmond, city of Delavan)

Opens September 23, Limited to 30

We will close our 2018 Supper Club Journeys with a visit to The Duck Inn, an historic Supper Club, in Delavan. There will be a choice of about ten menu items, including, beef, pork, chicken, duck and seafood. Prices (including tax and tip) range from about $24 to $42. All entrees include cheese and crackers, tossed salad, starch and dinner rolls.

The name, The Duck Inn, originated during the prohibition era when The Duck Inn was a speak easy. Therefore, patrons secretly "duck in" for a drink where the bartender would tell a patron to be quiet and "speak easy." After prohibition ended, Wisconsin liquor licenses were issued mostly outside the city limits, with the contingency that the establishment must serve food. To make use of the liquor license, establishments started to specialize in dinners and "supper clubs" were born.

Your hosts for the evening are Joyce Szulc and Jim Stephens. Contact Joyce at 262-886-9328 or jszulc@wi.rr.com.
